

Questions

Husbands

1. Do you want your spouse to be your wife or your mother? In other words, would you be predominately characterized as one who cares for his wife or one who is cared for by his wife?
2. It is very difficult for a ruler to rule when he doesn't know the rules. As a ruler of God's people (your wife), have you read through the entire Bible? If not, when do you plan on doing so?
3. Being strong has nothing to do with physical strength. So, what exactly does it mean to be strong in the Lord? (pretend you are explaining the concept to a 7 year old)
4. What are some tangible methods to keep your ways subjected to God's ways?

Wives

1. Pray for your husbands.
2. Have a nice week with the Lord.

Couples

1. Discuss how a child speaks, thinks, and reasons. Contrast this with how a man speaks, thinks, and reasons. Discuss when, why, and how these changes come about.
2. How does God define a successful marriage? Do you define success in the same way (it may help to look at your predominate activities and focus over the past year)?
3. Pretend you are friends with a married couple where the husband is a model railroader. Is this hobby okay? Why?
