

Questions

Husbands

1. Are you embittered against your wife in any area?
2. How can a husband overcome embitterment against his wife?
3. Why does embitterment occur? Whose fault is it?
4. When you say, "I love you" to your wife, what do you mean by it? Is it the same as God defines it?

Wives

1. Why can respect be used to summarize subjection?
2. What is respect?
3. Are there other people you treat with more respect than your husband?
4. Think of three ways in which you could respect your husband.
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.

Couples

1. The word respect can also be translated fear. The Old Testament is full of commands to fear the Lord. How does fearing the Lord help us understand respecting a husband?
2. Discuss your two views of what constitutes loving behavior.
3. Discuss your two views of what constitutes respectful behavior.
4. Openly discuss whether you have a relationship based upon love and respect. Where can improvements occur?