Husbands

1. Do you have any acquaintances or co-workers who do not know you are married? If so, why haven't you told them? If so, make it known.
2. Carefully think through any areas where you have/might put your wife at risk in order to protect yourself. What are you afraid of? How can you overcome those fears?
3. Many times the reason a husband shies away from his marital relationship is because there is another relationship that is more important to him. Are there any such relationships in your life (e.g. children, co-worker, parents, "buddies," etc.)? How do you plan to overcome this?
4. Your wife is your helper. Ask her if there are any areas where you put her at risk or separate yourself in order to protect yourself and/or your reputation.

Wives

1. Pray for your husbands.
2. Be prepared to help your husband with question 4. Don't forget to speak the truth in love.

Couples

1. Discuss areas where events or people have/may come between your oneness.
2. Fear can lead to adultery. Discuss how this could happen.
3. Address question 4 together. Make plans together on how you will overcome this temptation should it arise.
