

Questions

Husbands

1. Your relationship with your wife always takes precedence over your relationship with your parents.
 True       False (If not, then what specifically do you need to change?)
2. No other relationship is more important than your relationship with your wife.
 True       False (If not, then what specifically do you need to change?)
3. You are regularly becoming one flesh with your wife.
 True       False (If not, then why not? What are you doing to change this?)

Wives

1. You rely upon your husband, instead of your parents, to nurture and provide for you.
 True       False (If not, then what specifically do you need to change?)
2. No other relationship is more important than your relationship with your husband.
 True       False (If not, then what specifically do you need to change?)
3. You are regularly becoming one flesh with your husband.
 True       False (If not, then why not? What are you doing to change this?)

Couples

1. Openly discuss your answers above and specific remedies where necessary.
2. Brainstorm on areas where you may not be submitting yourselves to the Lord to allow Him to join you together. For example, are there areas that have potential for undermining your unity (e.g., separate email accounts, separate cell phones, separate friends, separate activities, etc.)? What are you doing to prevent these things from being used by Satan to cause division?
3. Do you pray together? Do you read Scripture together? Do you worship together? Do you eat meals together? Do you play together?
4. Are you “one” in the sight of others? If you need to, ask some people.
5. Discuss how Satan and the world undermine and attack the unity God designed for marriage.